

Al-Ahd Organization

Building civilization begins with building human

Al-Ahd Organization

In light of the crises that the region is going through, especially in northeastern Syria, it became clear to us the importance of the role of civil society organizations, and because of our belief in the importance of this role, it became clear to us the need for societies to develop economically and socially, because this development is of great benefit to get out of the Syrian crisis and solve part of its effects and problems. Al-Ahd Organization was established Which aims to contribute to achieving the goals of sustainable development. A number of intellectual and cultural cadres joined this establishment, bearing in mind the achievement of early recovery through its activities and work in the future, which target the most needy groups and regions
